

LEEDS TRINITY UNIVERSITY COLLEGE

24th National Schools History Project
Conference

Friday 6 July – Sunday 8 July 2012

at

Leeds Trinity University College

“The best CPD available!”

LEEDS TRINITY UNIVERSITY COLLEGE,
BROWNBERRIE LANE, HORSFORTH,
LEEDS LS18 5HD

TELEPHONE: 0113 2837100 ext 556

Fax: 0113 2837216

Leeds Trinity
University College

Why you shouldn't miss the 2012 SHP Conference.

“Fantastic – a wonderful, engaging experience”..... “Thoroughly inspiring”..... “My history cup runneth over” – just three typical evaluations from last year's SHP conference.

Our 2012 Conference promises more enjoyment, enrichment and inspiration. With five plenary sessions, 30 workshops, a lively fringe and an extensive resources exhibition, the SHP Conference brings together the sharpest thinking and best practice in school history.

Plenary sessions focus on the big issues in history education as well as providing practical strategies for effective teaching and learning. This year's plenary sessions are:

- Lindsey Johnstone, ‘Lessons from the Past’: Enhancing the well-being of learners through history
- Simon Schama, School history, nationhood and the new national curriculum (tbc)
- Euroclio, Can history education go beyond borders?
- Ian Dawson, What did the Anglo-Saxons ever do for us?
- Chris Culpin, ‘Here we go again’: planning for the next national curriculum

The conference includes a wide range of workshops from some of the country's most inspiring teachers and history educators. Workshops cover a range of topics across KS3, GCSE and A level. This year, there is a strong focus on: challenging and engaging learners of all abilities, making history matter to young people and e-learning. You will be able to attend five workshops and will leave with a range of practical strategies and resources for developing history in your school. (See below for a list of this year's workshops).

The conference has a lively fringe and a one-stop resources exhibition, providing a great opportunity to review the publishers' new resources and to talk through your resources needs.

WORKSHOPS

You will be able to attend five of these inspiring workshops:

- Wrestling with enquiry questions
- How a nice cup of tea can provide coherence at Key Stage 3
- Active learning at A level
- Using the National Archives to produce deep learning
- Personalised learning without the paperwork
- Ancient history at GCSE
- The power of collaboration
- Helping students to understand the diversity of past societies
- Starters and plenaries: what and how are we starting and finishing?
- Improving writing through the medicine development study
- Challenging and engaging history for low-attaining students at Key Stage 3
- Helping students to argue about change
- Teaching about protest at GCSE
- Mobile learning: using iPads
- Deeper thinking, better writing at A level
- Teaching about the Holocaust and human behaviour
- Using historic sites for controlled assessment at GCSE
- Remembering the First World War: linking local, national and international histories
- Learning about change and continuity in the first millennium in Britain
- Engaging, exciting and raising achievement of challenging low-attainers at GCSE
- Using source-driven enquiries across the key stages
- Growing Remembrance – designing for the future
- Effective independent enquiry in the age of the internet
- You Tube: a history teacher's best friend
- Using ipods in the history classroom
- The power of two – collaboration inside and outside the classroom
- Helping students to ask good historical questions

HOW TO BOOK A PLACE

All applications for the 2012 Conference will be made online. In fact, all your Conference arrangements will be made in this way: meals, workshop choices etc.

Just go to <http://www.schoolhistoryproject.org.uk/> and click on the conference link to make an on-line application. Please follow all steps for a successful application and you will receive an acknowledgement plus an invoice for your school by return.

If you do not receive any response from us or have any other difficulties in booking online then please contact:

Liz Cairns on 0113 2837100 ext 556 or email shp@leedstrinity.ac.uk

PRICES

- All Saints Court - En-suite superior accommodation for the nights of Friday 6 & Saturday 7 July and meals from lunchtime Friday to lunchtime Sunday inclusive, plus conference pack: £290.00
- Kirkstall Hall accommodation for the nights of Friday 6 & Saturday 7 July and meals from lunchtime Friday to lunchtime Sunday inclusive, plus conference pack: £240.00
- Non-residential - meals from lunchtime Friday to lunchtime Sunday, plus conference pack: £200.00
- Special Rate Conference Fee for trainees: £140.00
(Please contact Liz Cairns to book a place)

Leeds Trinity
University College